Commercial Real Estate
Day at the Capitol
Old Supreme Court Chambers
February 26, 2010
7:30 am—12:00 pm

The Commercial Real Estate Industry is joining together for a Day at the Capitol! Be there to watch the Legislative process and learn how the decisions made under the Gold Dome affect your future, as well as the future of your career and business. More importantly, be there to make sure your voice is heard!

We've invited House Speaker Terrance Carroll, Senate Minority Leader Josh Penry, House Minority Leader Mike May, Representative Joe Rice - Chair of House Business Affairs, Senator Dan Gibbs - Chair of Senate Transportation, Senator Chris Romer - future Joint Budget Committee Member as well as likely candidate for Denver Mayor & Don Elliman, the executive director of the Colorado Office of Economic Development & International Trade to join us for this half day event.

You will also get the opportunity to experience the Senate and House chambers first hand! Since lobbyists are not allowed on the floor, arrangements will be made to escort you there so you can see firsthand where our State laws are made. Furthermore, you will be guided through "Legislation 101" - a quick look at how the legislative process works, led by lobbying team Micki Hackenberger & Peggi O'Keefe of Axiom Strategies.

Lastly, depending on the committee calendar, we could provide the opportunity for you to sit in and observe the committees at work. This is an optional part of the program, but if you have the time, it will be well spent as you get an insider's view of Colorado lawmaking.

It was said by Pericles that

"Just because you do not take an interest in politics doesn't mean that politics won't take an interest in you." (430 BC)

YOUR POWER COMES FROM PARTICIPATION!

There is no registration fee for this event -
