

NAIOP Colorado
Day at the Capitol
April 23, 2008
8:30 — 11:30 a.m.

NAIOP Developing Leaders, join us for a half-day to watch the Legislative process and learn how the decisions made under the Gold Dome will affect your future, as well as the future of your career and business. We would also like to invite our more seasoned members to join us and share in the opportunity to listen to invited Legislators speak at the NAIOP Colorado Day at the Capitol.

We've invited Gov. Bill Ritter to address the group and lead a short question and answer session. We are also hoping to have Speaker of the House Andrew Romanoff and Senate President Peter Groff join us to address the group. Rep. Don Marostica (a home builder and developer from Loveland), Rep. Cory Gardner, Rep. David Balmer, Rep. Mike May and Rep. Joe Rice and others have been asked to make a few comments, as well as Sen. Josh Penry. Since lobbyists are not allowed on the floor of the Senate and House chambers, arrangements will be made to escort you there so you can see firsthand where our State laws are made.

Lastly, depending on the committee calendar, we are planning to provide the opportunity for you to sit in and observe the committees at work. This is an optional part of the program, but if you have the time, it will be well spent as you get an insider's view of Colorado lawmaking.

It was said by Pericles that "Just because you do not take an interest in politics doesn't mean that politics won't take an interest in you". (430 BC)
